Matt Mignanelli

Informed by the diverse industrial landscape that surrounds his studio, the perpetual energy of the city, and his keen attention to the nuances of structure and technique, Mignanelli's works are a refined, contemporary approach to painting. With extreme precision and a steady brush, his free-hand, often monochrome compositions of repeated geometric areas and fine lines, engage the fascinatingly subtle interactions of light and surface.

Born in 1983 Mignanelli is a graduate of the Rhode Island School of Design, a recipient of an artist grant from the Vermont Studio Center, and a guest lecturer at the Parsons School of Design. In 2015 Mignanelli's works were part of an exhibition at the SCAD Museum of Art in Savannah, Georgia.
